— CALL FOR APPLICATIONS —

GENDER PRIZE 2022

The Faculty of Business, Economics and Social Sciences strives to acknowledge graduates and doctoral students, who have considered gender issues in their final thesis paper or doctoral dissertation, by conferring gender prizes. Four prizes are available in 2022:

- doctoral dissertation — €1200
- Paper — €500
- master's thesis — €800 (book voucher)
- bachelor's thesis — €400 (book voucher or travel voucher/covering of travelling expenses)

The prizes will be awarded to outstanding final theses and doctoral dissertations completed between 2 July 2021 and 20 July 2022.

Selection and use of funds:

- Selection: the prizewinners are selected by the dean based on the recommendations of a jury.
- Use of funds: prizes are awarded in the form of book vouchers (BA/MA), travel vouchers (MA if not employed at UHH), covering of travelling expenses (MA, employed at UHH) or the covering of expenses and/or a subsidy for printing academic work, participation in conferences, congresses, or similar (doctoral dissertation).

For legal reasons, prize money cannot be paid out in cash.

The following are eligible to apply:

I. Graduates who wrote their final thesis at the Faculty of Business, Economics and Social Sciences and were awarded the grade of “Very good”; or their assessors. The final thesis must be completed by the application deadline and an assessment must be available.

II. Doctoral students who wrote their dissertation at the Faculty of Business, Economics and Social Sciences and were awarded the grade of “summa cum laude” or “magna cum laude”; or their assessors. The doctoral dissertation must have been completed between 2 July 2021 and 20 July 2022 and an assessment must be available.

III. Research associates (Section 28 HmbHG) of the Faculty of Business, Economics and Social Sciences, who wrote a paper with gender issues (between 2 July 2021 and 20 July 2022). The criteria for papers in the Faculty's doctoral regulations apply here.
