

Examples of topics of recent Master's theses

- The Transformation of Capitalism. Keynes's General Theory as a Roadmap to a New Society
- Hijacking Political Economy: The use of arguments taken from Bentham and Malthus in the debate about the 1834 Poor Law Reforms
- Property Rights in Personal Data. A Critical Discussion Drawing on Natural Rights Philosophy and Coasean Economics
- Governing the Global Commons: A Reappraisal of Elinor Ostrom's Approach in View of the Climate and Biodiversity Crises
- Are Concepts of Time and Uncertainty Dividing Lines for Climate Economics? Perspectives from the History of Economic Thought
- Inside Animal Spirits: A Philosophical Study of the Phenomena and Implications for Economic and Political Analysis
- Vera C. Smith Lutz and her Work on Free Banking. A Comparison of her Dissertation and Friedrich A. Hayek's Contributions on the Topic
- The Normative Force of Assumptions on Welfare Judgements in Economics. On How Assumptions Undermine the Objectivity of Economics and to What Extent They Can Be Avoided
- Classical Economic Thought on Women's Employment. John Stuart Mill's Perspective