CGG LECTURE

EAST WEST STREET

PROF. PHILIPPE SANDS
(UNIVERSITY COLLEGE LONDON, FACULTY OF LAWS)

East West Street. On the Origins of Genocide and Crimes against Humanity

When human rights lawyer Philippe Sands received an invitation to deliver a lecture in the western Ukrainian city of Lviv, he began to uncover a series of extraordinary historical coincidences. It set him on a quest that would take him halfway around the world in an exploration of the origins of international law and the pursuit of his own secret family history, beginning and ending with the last day of the Nuremberg trial. Part historical detective story, part family history, Sands guides us through some interconnected stories on the development of international law and the inclusion of the terms 'crimes against humanity' (Lauterpacht) and 'genocide' (Lemkin) in the judgement at Nuremberg.

Wednesday, February 8th, 2017, 6 p.m.
