

Book Workshop “Constituent Power in the European Union”

Manuscript by Markus Patberg

University of Hamburg, 16-17 September 2019

Von-Melle-Park 9, Room A 215

Day 1: 16.09.19

13:00-13:15 Welcome & Introduction
Peter Niesen (University of Hamburg)

Part I: Setting the Stage

13:15-14:00 Chapter 1 – In Search of a Democratic Response to Constitutional Mutation
Lucia Rubinelli (University of Cambridge)

14:00-14:45 Chapter 2 – Public Narratives of Constituent Power in the European Union
Kolja Möller (University of Bremen)

14:45-15:15 Coffee break

Part II: Exploring Competing Models

15:15-16:00 Chapter 3 – Regional-Cosmopolitan Constituent Power
Hans Agné (Stockholm University)

16:00-16:45 Chapter 4 – Demoi-cratic Constituent Power
Ben Crum (VU Amsterdam)

16:45-17:15 Coffee break

17:15-18:00 Chapter 5 – Dual Constituent Power
Simone Chambers (University of California, Irvine)

18:00-18:45 Chapter 6 – Destituent Power
Manon Westphal (University of Münster)

19:30 Dinner for speakers at “La Monella” (Hallerplatz 12)

Day 2: 17.09.19

Part III: Constructing a New Theory

09:30-10:15 Chapter 7 – Higher-Level Constituent Power: A New Conceptual Framework
Oliver Garner (European University Institute)

- 10:15-11:00 Chapter 8 – Citizens All the Way Down: Rethinking the Dual Constituent Subject
Christopher Zurn (University of Massachusetts Boston)
- 11:00-11:30 Coffee break
- 11:30-12:15 Chapter 9 – Extraordinary Partisanship: The Problem of Political Agency
Jonathan White (LSE)
- 12:15-13:00 Chapter 10 – Reclaiming the EU Polity: An Institutional Proposal
Fabio Wolkenstein (Aarhus University)

This workshop is part of the DFG-funded project “Reclaiming Constituent Power? Emerging Counter-Narratives of EU Constitutionalisation”.