

Short Biography

Professor Antje Wiener

DiplPol (FU Ber) PhD (Carl)

FAcSS (UK), By-Fellow Hughes Hall

Chair of Political Science, especially Global Governance
University of Hamburg
Faculty of Economics and Social Sciences Allende-Platz 1
20146 Hamburg
GERMANY

Tel: +49 40 42838-4086 (sec)

Tel: +49 40 42838-3232 (dir)

Fax: +49 40 42838-6878

Email: antje.wiener@wiso.uni-hamburg.de

Antje Wiener obtained a PhD in Political Science at Carleton University in Canada (1996) and an MA (DiplPol) in Political Science at the Free University of Berlin (1989). Her research and teaching interests are in the areas of International Relations Theories, especially Norms Research, Contestation Research, Global Governance and Global Constitutionalism.

Career

Before coming to Hamburg in 2009 she taught at the Free University of Berlin, Stanford, Carleton, Sussex, Hannover, Queen's Belfast and Bath. She currently holds the Chair of Political Science, especially Global Governance at the University of Hamburg. Where she served as Managing Director of the Centre for Globalisation and Governance (CGG) in 2009-10 & 2011-12 and directs Research Area 4 on Global Constitutionalism, Governance and World Society.

Fellowships and Awards

In 2017 she was elected as By-Fellow at Hughes Hall, Cambridge (until 2020), and in 2011 she was awarded a Fellowship of the Academy of Social Sciences in the United Kingdom. In addition she held international visiting and research fellowships in the USA (Stanford), Canada (Victoria; Carleton; Toronto), the UK (Sussex; Nuffield, Oxford; Institute for Advanced Studies, Edinburgh; Lauterpacht and Hughes, Cambridge), Italy (EUI), Germany (Institute for Advanced Studies-HWK Delmenhorst; Social Science Research Centre-WZB Berlin) and the Netherlands (Institute for Advanced Studies-NIAS). She has obtained research funding from various EU Framework Programmes, the British Academy, the Economic and Social Research Council, the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation, the Volkswagen Foundation, the Thyssen Foundation, the Ford Foundation, the Social Science Research Council and the Landesforschungsförderung, Hamburg, among others.

Boards

She is a founding editor of the interdisciplinary journal Global Constitutionalism: Human Rights, Democracy, Rule of Law which has been published with Cambridge University Press since 2012, and served as editor of the European Political Science Review, the German Political Science Journal (PVS), and on editorial boards for the German Journal of International Relations (ZfIR), the Journal of European Public Policy and the International Studies Review. She was a member of the Lionel Gelber Prize jury 2017 and chaired the Chadwick Alger Award jury of the International Studies Association in 2016-17. Her international involvement in learned societies, boards and executive committees includes serving on the Executive Committees of the Standing Group of International Relations (SGIR) of the European Consortium for Political Research (ECPR), the International Studies Association and the German Political Science Association. From 2016 to 2018 she has been appointed to the Peer Review Group of the ESRC's Global Challenges Research Fund.

Publications

Her books include A Theory of Contestation (Springer 2014), The Invisible Constitution of Politics: Contested Norms and International Encounters (CUP 2008), 'European' Citizenship Practice: Building Institutions of a Non-State (Westview 1998), Political Theory of the European Union (OUP 2011, co-edited with J Neyer), European Integration Theory (OUP 2003, 2009 co-edited with T Diez) and The Social Construction of Europe (SAGE 2001, co-edited with T Christiansen and K-E Jørgensen). Her articles have been published in leading academic journals including the European Journal of International Relations, the Review of International Studies, the Journal of International Law & International Relations, the Journal of Common Market Studies, the Journal of European Public Policy, the European Law Journal, Theory and Society and the Indiana Journal of Global Legal Studies, Politics and Governance, Polity, as well as the German Journal of International Relations.