

ECSR Network Workshop:
Social Institutions and Cognitive Health in Older Age
14th-15th February 2024 - University of Hamburg
Welckerstr. 8, 20354 Hamburg

Wednesday, 14th February 2024

Participants: Open to other junior and senior researchers as well as interested students.

11:00 – 11:30 Arrival and Opening

11:30 - 12:15 Light brunch

12:15 – 12:30 Introduction to the workshop (Giulia)

12:30 - 15:00 Session I

12:30 – 13:15 Prof. Malin Ericsson (Aging Research Center (ARC), Karolinska Institutet and Stockholm University; Department of Medical Epidemiology and Biostatistics, Karolinska Institutet): Educational influences on late-life health – Exploring cohort differences to understand gene-environment interplay.

Presentations by junior researchers (individual and joint work):

- i) 13:15 -13:45 Dr. Damiano Uccheddu (University of Louvain): Educational echoes: How children’s education shapes parental cognitive trajectories in later life (Discussant: Prof. Valeria Bordone)
- ii) 13:45 – 14:15 Dr. Ariane Bertogg (University of Konstanz): Social Norms and (Un)Equal Ageing: The Role of Life Courses and Social Capital - Ideas for a multi-year research program (Discussant: Prof. Anja Leist)
- iii) 14:15 - 15:05 Staying Sharp: How work-family life courses shape later life cognitive functioning across pension- and family regimes in Europe. Giulia Tattarini (presenter), Damiano Uccheddu, Ariane Bertogg

Coffee Break (30 min)

15:35 - 18:30 Session II

- i) 15.35 -16:20 Dr. Silvia Loi (Max Plank Institute for Demographic Research): Migration and Health Inequalities: an Intersectional Perspective.
- ii) 16.20 – 17:05 Prof. Valeria Bordone (University of Vienna): Heterogeneities in the association between family transitions and late-life cognitive functioning in Europe: the role of activity status.

Coffee Break (15 min)

iii) 17:20 – 18:05 Prof. Anja Leist (University of Luxembourg): Contextual and individual determinants of cognitive ageing and dementia in a global perspective.

18:30 Joint dinner at the Restaurant

Thursday, 15th February 2024

Participants: Open to other junior and senior researchers as well as interested students.

10:00 -10:20 Arrival and small breakfast

10:20 12:00 Session III

Presentations by the junior researchers (individual and joint works):

10:20 – 10:50 Dr. Giulia Tattarini (Uni. Hamburg) and Miriam Laschinski (Uni. Bremen/DIFIS): Is dropping out the labour market because of caring responsibility associated with economic and mental well-being in old age? (Discussant: Prof. Iris Kesternich)

Coffee Break (20 mins)

11:10 - 12:00 Work-family biographies and cognitive health in later life: Which are the mechanisms explaining the relationship? Giulia Tattarini, Damiano Uccheddu, Ariane Bertogg (joint presentation)

12:00 - 13:30 Lunch at the Restaurant

13:30 -16:30 Session IV

13:30 - 14:30 Discussion on collaborative grant opportunities

14:30 - 16:00 Discussion and planning of special issue and future joint network activities

16:00 -16:30 Coffee and Farewell

Friday 16th February 2024

Participants: Open only to junior researchers/ organisers

10:00 - 17:30 Full-day of joint work on the following points:

- Discussion on received feedback
- Devising of plans for the special issue
- Devising plans for workshop follow-ups in Konstanz and Louvain
- Preparation of a report to the ECSR