DER FORSCHUNG | DER LEHRE | DER BILDUNG

Universität Hamburg is dedicated to sustainability, equal opportunity, and family-friendly policies. We also prize cultural diversity, communication, and interaction among people from different backgrounds and with different lifestyles.

The Faculty of Business, Economics and Social Sciences invites applications for a

commencing on 1 October 2017, ref. no. JP 261

Responsibilities:

Applicants should have a work and research focus in the areas of environmental and resource economics. They should demonstrate sound understanding of economic theory and experience with empirical and experimental research. Applicants are further expected to cooperate in the Faculty's key research area of sustainability and contribute to the University's interdisciplinary research on climate and the environment.

Previous research should demonstrate the potential for publication in prestigious international journals. Applicants are further expected to apply for external funding.

The teaching obligation includes courses held in both German and English in the Faculty's bachelor's and master's programs, particularly in the Department of Economics.

Section 12 subsection 7 sentence 2 of the Hamburg Higher Education Act (Hamburgisches Hochschulgesetz, HmbHG) applies.

Requirements:

Academic qualifications and additional requirements as specified in Section 18 HmbHG.

Further criteria:

Applicants are expected to have international research experience as well as a successful track record in acquiring external funding and carrying out externally funded projects. The University places particular emphasis on the quality of teaching and therefore requests that applicants provide details of their teaching experience and objectives.

A tenure-track evaluation will be conducted during the second phase of the junior professorship in order to determine whether requirements for appointment to a W2 professorship have been met. Section 15 HmbHG applies. Upon proof that the candidate fulfills the requirements for an appointment to a W2 professorship, he or she will be appointed to a tenured professorship. The regulations prohibiting internal appointments (Hausberufungsverbot) also apply to junior professorships.

In accordance with Section 14 subsection 3 sentence 3 HmbHG, Universität Hamburg seeks to increase the proportion of women in teaching and research and encourages female academics to apply.

Qualified disabled candidates or applicants with equivalent status receive preference in the application process.

For further information, please contact Prof. Dr. Andreas Lange at +49 40 42838-4035 or andreas.lange@wiso.uni-hamburg.de.

The application deadline is 30. March 2017. Please submit your application, including standard documents (CV, list of publications, teaching experience, external funding record, copies of certification and documents, three representative publications) and reference number JP 261 to:
