Agenda

- 1. Academic Office Economics
- 2. Course registration
- 3. Examinations and regulations
  - 3.1 Exams
  - 3.2 Registration
  - 3.3 Being ill at the day of an exam

Exams

- You have three attempts to pass an exam (except the master's thesis).
- You have to register for exams via STINE.
- You are not allowed to take exams without registration.
- You cannot re-take exams you have already passed.
- If you have been registered for an exam and stayed absent without a medical certificate, you will get a failing grade.

Registration

- You register for exams together with the registration of courses.
- For written exams, you can choose between two dates for each semester: one after the end of the lecture period and one before the start of the next lecture period.
- If you fail the first examination attempt, you have to register for the second attempt by yourself.
- Please note: If you choose the second date for the first examination attempt and fail, then the second attempt takes place only one year later.

Exam de-registration

- You can de-register from written exams until 72 hours before the date of the exam in STiNE.
- This does not apply for presentations and term papers! Please use the registration periods for de-registering from courses where presentations/term papers are required.
- If you are registered for an exam and stay absent (or do not hand in your paper on time) without a medical certificate, you will get a failing grade.

Being ill at the date of an exam

You need

- an unqualified medical certificate stating that you are not fit for work (Arbeitsunfähigkeitsbescheinigung) and
- fill out form: "Proof of Inability to Take Examinations" Form (Written or oral examination)
- Both must be submitted to your Course and Examination Manager within seven days of being issued by a doctor (including holidays and weekends). Please keep yourself informed about current changes at the website of the Academic Office Economics.

Regular period of Study

- The regular period of study is four semesters.
- Students who have exceeded the regular period of study are invited to meet with the Subject Advisor within two semesters after the end of the regular period of study.
- Students who do not meet with the Program Coordinator will be withdrawn as a student.
- These rules are not currently implemented.

Agenda
